

Aboriginal Youth: A Manual of Promising Suicide Prevention Strategies

Authors:

Jennifer White and Nadine Jodoin

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1: ABOUT THIS MANUAL	1
Why did we write this manual?	1
How will this manual support your efforts?	2
Who was the manual written for?	3
How is the manual organized?	6
What this manual is not	6
 CHAPTER 2: BACKGROUND: ABOUT THE PROBLEM OF SUICIDE AMONGST YOUNG ABORIGINAL PEOPLE	 9
How many young Aboriginal people are dying by suicide in Canada?	9
Do statistics accurately reflect the problem of suicide in the Aboriginal population?	11
Are there any commonalities among Aboriginal youth who die by suicide?	11
Why is suicide such an issue for Aboriginal youth?	11
In closing	12
Suggested reading	13
 CHAPTER 3: DEVELOPMENT OF A MODEL FOR UNDERSTANDING	 15
Why should we be guided by a model?	15
A comprehensive look at youth suicide	15
A summary of risk and protective factors	17
Development of strategies	20
A focus on “before-the-fact” approaches	22
Pulling it all together	22
Suggested reading	24
 CHAPTER 4: STRATEGIES IN SUICIDE PREVENTION AMONGST ABORIGINAL YOUTH	 25
How did we decide what strategies to include in this manual?	25
What are the strategies?	27
How are the strategies presented?	28
 Community renewal strategies	 29
Cultural enhancement	29
Traditional healing practices	40
Community development	49
Interagency communication and coordination	64

CONTENTS

Community education strategies	80
Peer helping	80
Youth leadership	97
Community gatekeeper training	109
Public communication and reporting guidelines	126
Means restriction	134
School strategies	147
School gatekeeper training	147
School policy	160
School climate improvement	172
Youth/family strategies	185
Self esteem building	185
Life skills training	197
Suicide awareness education	210
Family support	223
Support groups for youth	240
CHAPTER 5: A COMMUNITY-WIDE APPROACH TO SUICIDE PREVENTION	251
APPENDIX A: ABORIGINAL YOUTH: SUICIDE RISK AND PROTECTIVE FACTORS	265
APPENDIX B: GLOSSARY OF TERMS	277